BILINGUAL PARENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING (BPAC)

THEME: * “LAS POSADAS”

Las Posadas is an important Mexican Christmas tradition. It is also celebrated throughout Latin America. It means “the inns or shelters.” Las Posadas brings together the entire community and it includes decorations, songs, parade, a party with delicious snacks and a piñata.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13

6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

EAST VIEW ACADEMY CAFETERIA
4209 Route 71, Oswego, 60543 Door # 1

\ BPAC is a group of bilingual parents with English learners (EL) students. The purpose of the group is to form a collaborative union amongst school district parents, teachers, and administrators. In addition, parents have access to professional development activities to support their student’s progress in school. BPAC also participates in the review of spending of grant funds.*
